Preparing Our Hearts for Worship

“The psalmist did not say, “The Lord gives me what I want,” but rather, “The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.” To know the Shepherd is to trust that He provides what is truly good, even when our path leads through shadows. He restores our souls when we are weary, guides us when we are lost, and walks beside us when the valleys grow dark. There is nothing we lack when the Lord is our Shepherd. His presence turns fear into peace, scarcity into abundance, and loneliness into belonging. Wherever we go – through green pastures or through valleys – His goodness and mercy follow us. And one day, we will find that we have been led home, to dwell in His house forever.” Adapted from David Roger, “Our Daily Bread”

†Song of Praise

“He Knows My Name”

HE KNOWS MY NAME

I have a Maker,
He formed my heart.
Before even time began
My life was in His hands.

*Chorus: He knows my name,
He knows my every thought.
He sees each tear that falls,
And hears me when I call.*

I have a Father,
He calls me His own.
He’ll never leave me,
No matter where I go.
